

DIAGRAMS TO ILLUSTRATE SPIRIT, SOUL & BODY

A supplement to the Bible Teaching, "The Process of Transformation"

Page 1

DIAGRAM #1

This illustrates:

- The body is the outer part; that part which is visible.
- The soul is between the spirit and body, and is made up of mind, will, emotions and conscience. The soul, affected by mind and/or spirit, is your personality.
- The spirit is the "inner man"; the real you.

NOTE: The terms "heart" and "spirit" are often used interchangeably. While that is sometimes true, it is not always true in the Bible. (To find out when it would be accurate, check the context. When it does not refer to the spirit only, the heart includes the soul. Understanding of this only comes from revelation of the Word; Hebrews 4:12.)

DIAGRAM #2

This illustrates:

- The spirit, soul, and body are interconnected, so that you do not know where one ends and another begins. (They are not three separate compartments; we are "tripartite".)

We know the above statement is true through observation. Examples:

- When we are sick, it affects us in our soul, particularly the emotions.
- Nonetheless, we can overcome sickness by keeping our soul realm in check, because the soul affects the body.
- When our spirits are alive to God, it affects our soul.

DIAGRAM #3

This illustrates:

- The soul is the “middleman” which regulates what can flow from your spirit into your body (or your natural life; or your experience).

The degree to which God’s supernatural life flows into your natural life is determined by the openness of your soul.

Your soul:

- Receives supernatural information, or revelation knowledge (the mind).
- Discerns the information based on a spiritual condition (the emotions).
- Makes a decision whether to submit to that information (the will).

DIAGRAM #4

This illustrates (in part) the process of the transformation of the soul (and the life; 3 John 2 etc.).

Jesus came to give life (John 10:10), but life is imparted through the Word. He said, "It is the spirit that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life" (John 6:63).

The only way for life to enter your soul from your spirit is through the Word. That's where we find out what our spirit is like (James 1:22-25).
